PRESTON GOMEZ, Manager

Pedro W. Gomez (Martinez) took the reins as field manager of the Chicago Cubs for the 1980 season. He started his professional playing career in 1944 in the major leagues with the Washington Senators as a shortstop. He batted .286 in eight games, but spent the rest of his 10 years as a player in the minor leagues.

Gomez began managing in 1957 and six of his 14 years in that capacity was spent in the majors with San Diego (1969-72) and Houston (1974-75).

He spent three years prior to joining the Cubs as coach for the Los Angeles Dodgers for whom he also coached in 1965-68. His other years as a coach was in 1976 (St. Louis) and 1973 (Houston). He was also coach of the 1973 American League All-Star Team.

For the past eight years he has resided in Santa Monica, California. He attended Mexico City College and Florida Southern in Lakeland, Florida. He was born on April 20, 1923, at Central Preston, Oriente, Cuba. Preston was named after his place of birth after he got into baseball.

ANNUAL GOLF BENEFIT FOR BASEBALL CHARITIES SET JUNE 9

The annual golf invitational tournament which has been designed by the Chicago Baseball Cancer Charities, Inc., has been set for the Midlothian C.C. on June 9.

White Sox players (Cubs on road) and former Cub stars of the past will be participating to help raise funds for recipients of the CBCC:

Hutchison Scholarship — Fox Cancer Center
Walker Leukemia Center — Lollar Scholarship

Those desiring to participate in the golf portion should send their $300 contribution in immediately by check or money order to the Chicago Baseball Charities All-Star Invitational, Box 3515, Merchandise Mart, Chicago, Ill., 60654.

This includes the brunch breakfast, the green fee, the cart fee, door prizes, golf prizes, free refreshments (open bar) throughout the affair, and a dinner followed by appropriate entertainment. For those attending the dinner only, the tickets are $60 and are available at the same address. Phone (312) 664-7676 for additional information.

CBCC donated over $42,000 to its charities last season and have set a goal of $75,000 this year. In addition to revenue obtained through the golf and dinner, the Cubs are selling golf balls at Wrigley Field and the White Sox are selling a pewter finished medallion of Nellie Fox and Sherm Lollar with proceeds going to CBCC. The medallion, which is made into a key chain, may also be purchased by mail by sending $2 by check or money order to Fox-Lollard Fund, Comiskey Park, 324 W. 35th St., Chicago, 60616.

COACHING STAFF

JOE AMALFITANO

Joe returned to the Cubs in 1978 after an absence of several years. Joe coached for the San Diego Padres in 1977 and previous to that, worked for the San Francisco Giants (1972-74). He began his coaching career with the Cubs, from 1967-71. Joe played 10 years in the majors, toiling for the Giants, Houston Astros and the Cubs primarily as an infielder. Joe was interim manager of the Cubs for six (2-4) games to conclude '79 season.

GENE CLINES

Gene was selected to join the Cubs coaching staff during the 1979 season. Gene played for 10 years in the big leagues with the Pirates, Mets, Rangers, and the Cubs. In 1972, with the Pirates, "Geno" had his best year at the plate hitting .334. Clines hit .293 for the Cubs in 1977. Clines' lifetime batting average in the majors was a respectable .277. One of the highlights of Gene's career came May 15-17, 1977, when he collected seven consecutive hits.

MIKE ROARKE

Mike made his debut as a major league pitching coach in 1978. Previously, he was in the Cubs' organization as a roving instructor for pitchers. Mike brings 10 years of major league experience to his position, having been a four-year catcher and three-year coach for the Tigers. He also coached for the Angels for three years. Mike launched a five-year tenure as a minor league manager in 1971. He won the American Association championship in 1972 with the Tigers' Evansville Club. Mike's first year with the Cubs was 1974 when he managed the Wichita Aeros.

OCTAVIO (COOKIE) ROJAS

Cookie joined the Cubs in 1978 as a major league coach after a long and memorable career as a premier second baseman. His final year as a player was in 1977 when Rojas played for the American League Western Division champs, the Kansas City Royals. He spent eight seasons in Kansas City, and before then, belonged to the Philadelphia Club for seven years. Cookie appeared in five all-star games and is a member of the 1500+ hit club. He has played all nine positions in his career and was selected Philadelphia's greatest second baseman in a 1969 poll.

BILLY WILLIAMS

Billy Williams, a former National League batting champion and one of the greatest hitters in modern day Cub history, was hired by the Chicago Cubs as a full-time coach and batting instructor in 1980. Williams, 41, played for the Cubs from 1959 through 1974 before ending his brilliant career the next year at Oakland. In his first full season in the majors in 1961, he batted .278, slammed 25 home runs, and drove in 86 runs to win the Rookie of the Year Award. His .333 batting average and .606 slugging percentage led the National League and earned him Player of the Year Award in 1972. Probably his most cherished mark is the National League record of 1,117 consecutive games played (9/22/63—9/3/70).

THE 1980 CUB PLAYERS

(Note: The last names are listed in the large, bold type preceding each biography. Next is his nickname, position(s), height, weight, how he bats and throws, and his date and place of birth.)

BIITTNER, Larry IB-OF
Born 7/27/47 Pocahontas, IA

Acquired: With Steve Renko from Montreal Expos for Andy Thornton on May 17, 1976.

Personal: Larry David Biittner is married and has two sons. In the off-season they reside in Arlington, Texas. Larry is a graduate of Pocahontas (IA) Catholic High and attended Drake University (Des Moines, IA), and Buena Vista College (Storm Lake, IA), majoring in physical education. He has brown hair and blue eyes and enjoys hunting, fishing, and golf. Larry is a teacher in the off-season.

Prior to Majors: Biittner excelled in basketball as well as baseball at Pocahontas (IA) Catholic High School. In fact, he enrolled at Drake University on a full basketball scholarship, but later switched to Buena Vista College at Storm Lake, Iowa, to concentrate on baseball. While attending the latter, he was on the 1967 and 1968 All-Iowa Conference Team, and in 1968 was elected to the NAIA All-American Team. Biittner was originally signed to a professional contract by the Washington Senators in 1968. He had an outstanding minor league season with Pittsfield in the Eastern League (Class AA) in 1970. He batted .3247, but was nosed out of the league batting title by Reading's Greg Luzinski (Now with the Philadelphia Phillies) who had a .3248. Larry's performance earned him a berth on Topp's Class-AA All-Star Team.

Major Leagues: Larry moved from Washington to Texas when the Senators changed to the Rangers. Texas traded him on December 20, 1973, to the Montreal Expos for the contact of pitcher Pat Jarvis. In his first full season with the Expos (1975), Biittner batted .315 to lead the team in hitting. He only struck out 33 times in 121 games that season. In 1977, Larry set career highs in games (138), at bats (493), RBI's (62), home runs (12), doubles (28), hits (147), and runs (74). He had the Cubs longest hitting streak in '77 when he hit safely in 15 straight games from June 5 through June 20. During this period, he batted .333 with 22 hits in 66 official appearances. In 1978, he was manager Herman Franks' top clutch hitter coming off the bench. He had 12 RBI's as a pinchhitter with 11 hits in 33 trips for a .333 percentage. In 1979, Biittner again proved his worth as a valuable pinchhitter and starter. As a pinchhitter, he hit a solid .324 with 12 hits in 37 at bats which include one double, one home run and 11 RBI's. With runners in scoring position, Larry again excelled hitting a remarkable .424. Larry hit best last season against Montreal (.429), Atlanta (.350), Cincinnati (.406), San Diego (.375), and San Francisco (.333). Some interesting facts of Biittner's 1979 season are: batting .302 in day games, .331 at home, .395 against left handed pitching, and .309 on natural grass.

BLACKWELL, Tim C

5′ 11″ 185 lb. S-R

Born 8/19/52 San Diego, CA

Acquired: Signed as free agent by Chicago Cubs in February 10, 1978.

Personal: Timothy P. Blackwell is married, has one daughter and resides in his native San Diego. He was graduated at Crawford High School (San Diego, CA) in 1970 and attended Grossmont Community College (El Cajon, Ca). Tim's hobbies include golf, tennis and basketball.

Prior to majors: Tim began his baseball career in Little League and continued in high school where he played both baseball and football. He was named the school's Most Valuable Player in both sports. In his senior year, Tim batted .392 in the Eastern League with .355 overall and was selected as the third baseman for the All-League first team and All-San Diego second team. Ray Boone inked Tim to a contract with the Boston Red Sox as an infielder in 1970, right out of high school. Tim spent the 1970 season in Jamestown (Class A) where he appeared in 81 games. With Greenville (Class A), in 1971, he made the switch to catching and went through two more seasons in the minors before he was elevated to the big club in 1974 after appearing in 50 games at Pawtucket (Class AAA).

Major Leagues: He spent the entire season in the big leagues with Boston in 1975 when he appeared in 59 games. He was traded to Philadelphia prior to the 1976 season but toiled in Rhode Island (Class AAA) and Reading (Class AAA) where he led the Eastern League catchers in assists (64) and was named to the All-Star team before finishing the year in Philadelphia. Tim started the 1977 season in Reading (Class AAA), was brought up to Philly and then traded to Montreal. He joined the Cubs in spring training 1978 and played in Wichita (Class AAA) before being called up halfway through the season. Tim proved invaluable as a back-up catcher to the Cubs in 1979. His strong throwing arm and leadership behind the plate were a welcomed addition. Tim enjoyed a great deal of success against the Atlanta Braves hitting at a torrid .500 clip.

BUCKNER, Bill OF-1B

6′1″ 185 lb. L-L

Born 12/14/49 Vallejo, CA

Acquired: With Ivan DeJesus and Jeff Albert from Los Angeles Dodgers for Rick Monday and Mike Garman on January 11, 1977.

Personal: William Joseph Buckner is married and resides in Chicago, Ill. He is a graduate of Napa (CA) High School. Bill enjoys hunting and fishing. He is a rancher during the off-season. Bill has brown hair and eyes.

Prior to Majors: Buckner enjoyed a stellar prep career at Napa High School, where he was a standout in both baseball and football. He was an outstanding wide receiver on the gridiron, being named to the Coaches' All-American team in his junior and senior years, as well as being named to the Northern California Football Hall of Fame. In baseball, Bill hit .667 as a junior and .529 as a senior. Buckner was the Dodgers second selection in the 1968 June Free Agent Draft and he passed up over 60 collegiate football scholarship offers to sign with the Dodgers following his prep career. Buckner has hit .300 in every league he's played in on the professional level starting in 1968 at Ogden, Utah, where his .344 average led the Pioneer League (Rookie Class). He also led the league in games (64), at bats (256), and hits (88). In 1970, his final year in the minors before being elevated permanently, he batted .355 for Spokane (WA), finishing a close third in the race for the Pacific Coast League (Class AAA) batting title.

Buckner, Cont'd

Major Leagues: "Buc's" first full season in the majors was in 1971 when he hit .277 for the Dodgers and served primarily as a first baseman. His great potential showed in his second season when he batted a career-high .319 in 105 games. While his average dipped to .275 in 1973, he finished third on the Dodgers in hit production with 158. Bill enjoyed his most productive season in 1974 when he hit .314, fourth best in the National League, stole a career-high 31 bases and had a 17-game hitting streak (longest on the Dodgers) in leading club to the N.L. pennant. Buckner's most frustrating season was 1975 when a severely sprained ankle hampered him throughout the year and eventually required surgery. He rebounded by playing in 154 games in 1976 with a batting average of .301 and 28 stolen bases. His 193 hits and 60 runs batted in represent personal career highs. Bill showed consistency at the plate in 1976 by never going hitless in more than two successive games. In 1978, Buckner struck out only 17 times in 470 appearances to the lead the National League with the least number of strike outs of those batting 450 or more times. His .323 batting average would have been second in the loop only to leader Dave Parker of Pittsburgh had his injuries not kept Bill below the minimum 502 plate appearances. His performance in 1978 earned him the Cub's Major League Player Award from the Pitch and Hit Club and Chicago's Player of the Year from the Chicago Chapter of the Baseball Writers' Association of America. He was also chosen as the most popular professional athlete in the Chicagoland area in a poll of fans by Sports Phone edging Bull center Artis Gilmore. Bill again had a successful 1979 season in the field and at the plate as well as providing needed leadership. Bill hit well against Montreal (.308), New York (.303), Philadelphia (.446), Cincinnati (.361), and Los Angeles (.340). "Buc" also hit .375 as a pinchhitter, .313 at home and .310 during day games.

CAPILLA, Doug — P

5' 8" — 175 lb. — L-L

Born 1/7/52 — Honolulu, HI

Acquired: From Cincinnati for cash and Mark Gilbert On March 10, 1979.

Personal: Douglas Edmund Capilla is married, has two children, and resides in Cincinnati, OH. Doug attended Westmont High School and West Valley Junior College both in Campbell, CA. His hobbies include fishing, swimming and dancing.

Prior to Majors: Doug played baseball in high school and in his senior year posted a 10-4 record and struck out 166 batters in 90 innings. He struck out his first 21 batters faced as a professional pitcher at Great Falls (Pioneer League) in 1970. Doug was drafted by the St. Louis Cardinal organization from the San Francisco Giants in the 1973 winter draft. June 15, 1977, he was traded to the Cincinnati Reds for pitcher Rawly Eastwick.

Major Leagues: Doug's first Major League appearance—September 12, 1976, with St. Louis—he was victorious against the New York Mets. Doug was a welcome addition to the Cubs pitching corps providing valuable left handed relief help as well as that of a spot starter.

CAUDILL, Bill P

6' 1" 175 lb. R-R

Born 7/13/56 Santa Monica, CA

Acquired: With Woodie Fryman and Rudy Meoli from Cincinnati Reds for Bill Bonham on October 31, 1977.

Personal: William Holland Caudill is single and resides in Manhattan Beach, CA. He was graduated at Aviation High School in Redondo Beach, CA. Bill enjoys motorcycling and hunting. He is an assistant coach during the off-season. Bill has brown hair and blue eyes.

Prior to Majors: Bill was a standout pitcher at Aviation High School (Redondo Beach, CA) where he holds the school strikeout record. He was a member of the Ocean League and received the MVP award, along with the honor of being on the All-Star team. Bill was selected eighth by the Cardinals in the June 1974 free agent draft and was signed by Harrison Wickel and Bob Harrison. He played for the Cardinals Astros team in the 1974 Florida Winter Instructional League. A short season in Sarasota (Rookie) showed him a strong pitcher as he struck out 35 in eight games while recording a 1.80 ERA. He was superb in 1975 when, as a member of the St. Petersburg (Class A) team, he led the Florida State League in complete games (12), wins (14) and strikeouts (153). He pitched a 4-0 no-hitter against Winter Haven on May 14 of that season. In 1976 he moved up to Arkansas (Class AA), striking out 140 to lead the Texas League. Bill was traded to the Cincinnati Reds organization on March 28, 1977, and was assigned to their double-A affiliate, Three Rivers. There he compiled an excellent 13-4 record with 93 strikeouts in 114 innings.

Major Leagues: Caudill is one of the hardest-throwing pitchers in professional baseball. Bill, in his first season in the big leagues, pitched well although his record does not reflect this. His first major league win came against the World Champion Pittsburgh Pirates on September 29, 1979, striking out four in four and a third innings pitched; including MVP Willie Stargell twice with runners in scoring position. Bill struck out 104 batters in 90 innings for a remarkable 1.15 strikeouts per inning. He was one of five Cub pitchers surpassing the 100-mark in strikeouts which was instrumental in gaining the team crown in that category among National League clubs. With a year under his belt, Bill could become one of the better young pitchers in the League in 1980.

CHURCHILL, Norman P
6' 1" 205 lb. L-L
Born 4/16/55 Hempstead, NY

Acquired: With Bruce Compton from the Cleveland Indians for Dave Rosello on December 6, 1977.
Personal: Norman James Churchill is single and resides in Tampa, FL. He was graduated at Robinson High (Tampa, FL) in 1976 and attended Hillsborough Community College in Tampa. He has brown hair and eyes and his hobbies include golf, hunting and reading sport magazines.
Prior to Majors: "Butch" played Little League, Babe Ruth League and American Legion ball. He attended schools in four states as his father was an Air Force officer. He played baseball and football in high school. His greatest thrill in high school was beating his arch-rival, pitching out of a bases loaded jam in the ninth on five pitches and drove in the winning run in the 12th in his second at bat of the season in 1976. He was Cleveland's fourth selection in the 1977 free agent draft. In 1977 he tied for the league lead in games started with 14, and tied for second in wins with eight. In 1978 Butch pitched in the Arizona Instructional League and in five games he was 2-1 with a 3.60 ERA.

Born 12/30/53 — Oakland, CA

Acquired: Signed by the Chicago Cubs.
Personal: Steven Michael Davis is married and resides in San Jose, CA. He was graduated at Cambell High School and Stanford University with a major in economics. He has brown hair and blue eyes.
Prior to Majors: Davis played Little League, Pony League, Colt League, and Connie Mack League ball. In high school he played baseball, basketball and football. In his senior year, he was named to the All-League and All-CCS Tournament Teams in baseball. At Stanford, he played varsity baseball all four years. In his senior year, he batted .298 in 65 games with 12 home runs and 49 RBI's, and was named to the All-Northern California Team. He set Stanford single game records for most runs scored (57 in 1976) and career records for most runs scored (141), hits (237) and times at bat (772). In November of 1974, he helped lead the United States team to the Championship of the World Basebball Amateur Tournament; batting .417 and playing shortstop. In 1973, he helped lead the Eureka Humboldt Crabs to the California State Semi-Pro Championship. In 1974-75, he played for the Anchorage Glacier Pilots and was voted team's Pilot-of-the-Year. In 1976, Steve led the Gulf Coast League in fielding at shortstop (.983 with only four errors in 283 total chances), putouts (76) , assists (158) and double plays (27); putting him on the GCL All-Star Team. In 1977, he led the Texas League in fielding (.958), putouts (233) and assists (399) at shortstop. In the fall of 1977, he played in the Arizona Instructional League and batted .306 in 36 games with 24 RBI's and was named to the AIL All-Star Team. In 1978, Steve played for Wichita and led the league in games played (135) at second base.
Major Leagues: Steve was elevated to the major leagues at the end of August. Steve started his first game as a Cub on September 25 against the New York Mets at Wrigley Field collecting his first big league RBI.

DEJESUS, Ivan — SS
5′ 11″ — 175 lb. — R-R
Born 1/9/53 — Santruce, PR

Acquired: With Bill Buckner and Jeff Albert from the Los Angeles Dodgers for Rick Monday and Mike Garman on January 11, 1977.
Personal: Ivan Alvarez DeJesus is married, has one daughter, and resides in Rio Piedras, PR, in the off-season.
Prior to Majors: DeJesus was signed to his first pro contract by the Los Angeles Dodgers in 1969 while still in high school and he was sent immediately to Daytona Beach of the Florida State League (Class A). He remained on the Class A level for four years until 1974 when he was elevated to Albuquerque, NM, where he hit .298 and was named to the Pacific Coast League (Class AAA) All-Star Team. He had his best season in 1976 when he posted a .304 average in 108 games with 64 runs-batted-in and 31 stolen bases. His seven home runs were the third highest on the team as were his doubles (27) and triples (7).
Major Leagues: Ivan was first elevated to the majors in 1974 and spent a portion of three seasons on the top level. He appeared in 63 games for the Dodgers in 1975 as he got the opportunity to play on a semi-regular basis when Bill Russell was out with an injured knee. Ivan established himself as the Cubs' full-time shortstop in 1977, playing 155 games which was second on the team to Steve Ontiveros' 156. DeJesus' 595 assists and 862 total chances led all major lead shortstops. In 1978, the fans were buzzing all over the league talking about DeJesus. They had marveled at his phenomenal catches afield and were surprised to see him hit so well in 1977 during his first full season in the majors. But in 1978, he showed them even better hitting as he was dazzling them with his speed on the base paths and at the same time contributing to three National League team records with his glove. He played in 160 games, tops on the team and more than any other shortstop in the majors, and made 558 assists to again pace all major league shortstops by far. This was over 27% of the 2,059 assists made by the Cubs in 1978 who led all major league clubs, in that category and in total chances (6,569). DeJesus tallied 104 runs to edge former Red Pete Rose and Pittsburgh's Dave Parker out of the National League lead. Ivan also led his teammates in at bats (619), hits (172), sacrifice hits (15), stolen bases (41), and tied teammate Greg Gross for the lead in triples (7). DeJesus' stolen bases were the most by a Cub since Kiki Cuyler pilfered 43 in 1929 and Johnny Evers 46 in 1907. In 1979, Ivan again had a good year making spectacular plays in the field and performing well with the bat. DeJesus hit .283 which is the best he has hit in the major leagues in a full season. His performance earned him a berth on the Nuestro All-Star Team. Ivan was most successful at the plate against New York (.300), Philadelphia (.350), Pittsburgh (.319), and San Francisco (.347).

DILLARD, Steve IF

6' 1" 180 lb. R-R

Born 2/3/51 Memphis, TN

Acquired: Contract purchased from the Detroit Tigers for an undisclosed amount of cash on March 20, 1979.

Personal: Stephen Bradley Dillard is married and resides in Saltillo, MI. Steve was graduated at Saltillo (MS) High School and University of Mississippi at Oxford. His hobby is hunting. He has blond hair and blue eyes.

Prior to Majors: In high school he won 16 letters—five in baseball, four in basketball and track, and three in football at Saltillo High. Steve was an outstanding star at Ole Miss, making every all star team in the Southeastern Conference and playing in the College World Series. Dillard signed as Boston's number two selection in the June 1972 draft. He broke in with Winston-Salem that year and batted .279 with 43 stolen bases. Steve compiled 109 stolen bases in five minor league seasons.

Major Leagues: Steve was obtained from the Boston Red Sox by the Tigers on January 30, 1978, for pitchers Mike Burns and Frank Harris plus cash. Steve got his first taste of the big time in 1975 with Boston and returned to Fenway Park in 1976 and filled assorted infield jobs, batting .275 in 57 games. He played 44 games at second base and nine at shortstop in his first full season with the Red Sox. Steve had a great year with the Cubs in 1979 especially in the month of August when he hit a torrid .305. Dillard was also selected Player of the Week August 7-12 going 12 for 20 for a .600 average scoring nine runs, knocking in 11 with two doubles and three home runs. Steve hit .375 against Philly, .368 versus Pittsburgh, .407 versus St. Louis, .500 versus Atlanta and .368 versus San Diego. He batted .306 during day games, .349 at Wrigley Field, .314 versus left handed pitching, and .341 with runners in scoring position.

DILONE, Miguel OF
5' 11" 160 lb. S-R
Born 12/1/54 Santiago, DR

Acquired: Contract purchased from the Oakland A's for an undisclosed amount of cash on July 4, 1979.
Personal: Miguel Angel Dilone is married and resides in Santiago, Dominican Republic. His hobby is listening to music.
Prior to Majors: Miguel was originally signed as a free agent by the Pittsburgh Pirates but on a later date the St. Louis Cardinals also signed him not realizing the Pittsburgh club had a valid contract. The National Association ruled in favor of the Pirates. In 1972 he was second in stolen bases (41) in the New York-Pennsylvania League (Class A). In 1973 he set the Western Carolinas League (Class A) record for the most stolen bases (95) in one season. He also led the league in runs scored with 94. He played in the Western Carolinas League All-Star Game and was voted Topps' Player of the Month for August. In 1974 he set the Carolina League record for most stolen bases (85) in one season, led the league in hits (177), was second in batting (.333), runs scored (106) and doubles (27). Miguel was named to league and National Association (Class A) All-Star teams, and was voted Carolina League's Topps Player of the Month for May and Topps Player of the Year. In 1975 he led the International League in stolen bases (61), and was second in batting with a .336 average and was named to the league all-star team. He was also voted Topps' Player of the Month for August. He lost the International League batting title to Rochester's Rich Dauer in 1976 by a .000094 margin.
Major Leagues: In 1977 with the Pirates, he established the National League record for most stolen bases without being caught stealing in one season, 12. On April 4, 1978 he was traded to the Oakland A's from the Pirates with pitcher Elias Sosa and a player to be named later (Mike Edwards) for Manny Sanquillen. Miguel was an exciting addition to the Cubs in 1979 providing valuable speed on the base paths as well as in centerfield. Miguel stole 15 bases in 43 games. Miguel hit well against Montreal (.545), and Houston (1.000). He also hit .364 at night, .364 on the road, .444 versus left handed pitching, .467 on artificial turf, and .333 with runners in scoring position.

FOOTE, Barry — C
6′ 3″ — 220 lb. — R-R
Born 2/16/52 — Smithfield, NC

Acquired: With Jerry Martin, Ted Sizemore, Henry Mack, and Derek Botelho from the Philadelphia Phillies for Manny Trillo, Dave Rader, and Greg Gross on February 23, 1970.
Personal: Barry Clinton Foote is married, has one child, and they reside in Raleigh, NC. He is the son of former Dodger and Pirate third baseman-pitcher, Amby Foote. Barry participated in the Clearwater Baseball World in the off-season as instructor. His hobbies include hunting and fishing.
Prior to Majors: Barry played Little League, American Legion and Babe Ruth baseball. He was the number one pick of the Expos in the June 1970 free agent draft (third pick overall). Barry was a two-time all-star catcher in the minor leagues, 1970 and 1973.
Major Leagues: Barry was Montreal's starting catcher in his rookie season of 1974 hitting .262 in 125 games with 11 home runs and 60 RBI's. This earned Barry the National League Rookie of the Year award. Barry was traded to Philadelphia from Montreal along with Dan Warthen, June 15, 1977, for Wayne Twitchell and Tim Blackwell. Foote was used sparingly in the 1978 season, appearing in only 39 games while playing behind all-star catcher Bob Boone. "Big Foote" did everything expected of him in 1979 in all departments. This was Barry's second full season playing regularly (enough to obtain over 450 plate appearances) and he hit a very respectable .254 as well as calling a superb game behind the plate. Barry hit best against Philadelphia (.343), his former teammates; Atlanta (.333); and San Diego (.462). Barry hit a grand slam against the Phillie's on May 15, 1979. Barry also hit .302 in the month of June and .305 in September.

GEISEL, Dave P

6′ 3″ 205 lb. L-L

Born 1/18/55 Windber, PA

Acquired: Signed by the Chicago Cubs.

Personal: John David Geisel is single and resides in Tonawanda, New York, in the off-season. He was graduated at Tonawanda High School. His hobbies include cooking, fishing, hunting, music and cards. Dave has brown hair and eyes.

Prior to Majors: Geisel played Little League, Babe Ruth, and for Tonawanda in the All-American Amateur Baseball Federation. He played basketball and was captain of his baseball team in high school where he was All-Niagara Frontier League selection. He pitched three no-hitters in seven starts and struck out 21 consecutive batters in one game. He was signed to a Cub contract by Ralph DiLullo. Dave won 20 and lost only 12 in his first two seasons of professional baseball. In the 1975 Arizona Winter Instructional League he recorded a .285 earned run average and struck out 38 in 41 innings. Dave has never pitched below double-A classification.

Major Leagues: Big Dave was elevated to the majors on June 9, 1978. He did a commendable job for a nervous rookie the rest of the year for the Cubs despite a brief trip back to Wichita July 20-August 31. His lone victory in the big leagues was a 7-5 victory in relief against the Cardinals in St. Louis on July 4, 1978. In 1979, the big lefthander had a great year after being called up in early September. Dave compiled a fantastic 0.60 ERA while striking out five in 15 innings pitched. Against the World Champion Pittsburgh Pirates, Geisel did not allow an earned run while pitching nine innings and striking out three.

GORDON, Mike C

6′ 3″ 216 lb. S-R

Born 9/11/53 Leominster, MA

Acquired: Signed by the Chicago Cubs.

Personal: Michael William Gordon is single and resides in Brockton, MA, in the off-season. Mike was graduated at Brockton (MA) High School. His religion is Catholic, has brown hair and blue eyes and enjoys fishing and golf.

Prior to Majors: Mike played baseball, basketball, and football in high school and was captain in all three his senior year (1972). He has always been a leader and a winner from Little League (he pitched a perfect game in the state tournament) all the way up through high school and American Legion Baseball. His prep baseball team won Suburban League Championship with Mike gaining all-league and All-Boston Scholastic Team honors. He helped lead his football team to a Massachusetts state title in 1970. As a senior, he was named on the Sunkist, Kickoff, and Parade All-American Football Teams and was chosen Outstanding College Football prospect by Scouting Systems of America. He also played in two state basketball championship tournaments. He was the Cubs' third selection in the 1972 summer free agent draft and—as he was so heavily sought by college grid coaches—Chicago is fortunate Cub scout Len Merullo was able to ink Mike to a baseball pact. In 1975, he was named catcher on the Class A Florida State League All-Star Team.

Prior to Major Leagues: Mike, in 1979 with the Wichita Aeros of the American Association Class (AAA), led all catchers in fielding with an excellent .989 percentage.

HENDERSON, Ken OF
6' 3" 190 lb. S-R
Born 6/15/46 San Diego, CA

Acquired: For cash from the Cincinnati Reds June 28, 1979.

Personal: Kenneth Joseph Henderson is married, and has three children, they reside in Saratoga, CA. He was graduated at Clairemont High School (San Diego, CA.) and attended West Valley College (Campbell, CA). Ken's hobbies include golf, tennis and fishing.

Prior to Majors: Ken was a three-sport standout in high school. He also played basketball at West Valley College. He signed his first professional baseball contract in 1964 with the San Francisco Giants.

Major Leagues: Started his baseball career in 1965 with the San Francisco Giants, and played with the Giants through 1972. He was traded to the Chicago White Sox on November 29, 1972, with pitcher Steve Stone for Tom Bradley where Ken performed through 1975. As an outstanding centerfielder with the White Sox, Ken recorded his finest season at the plate in 1974 while playing in 162 games. The next year while scoring a run at full speed his spikes caught in the artificial grass which was on the infield at Comisky Park at the time. When the spikes ripped loose, it injured his knee and later required surgery. Ken hit two home runs in one game, one right handed and one left handed, August 29, 1975. On December 12, 1975, he was traded to the Atlanta Braves with pitchers Dick Ruthven and Danny Osborn for outfielder Ralph Garr and infielder Larvell Blanks. Ken was traded to Texas on December 9, 1976, with outfielder Dave May, pitchers Carl Morton, Roger Moret and Adrian Devine plus cash for outfielder Jeff Burroughs. Ken was sent to the New York Mets completing the deal involving Willie Montanez, Tom Grieve, Jon Matlack and Jack Milner on March 15, 1978. On May 19, 1978, he was traded to the Cincinnati Reds for pitcher Dale Murray. Ken in 1979 was used primarily as a pinchhitter and back-up outfielder. Ken hit best against Phildelphia (.400), Pittsburgh (.333), Atlanta (.333) and Cincinnati (.400).

HERNANDEZ, Willie P

6' 2" 180 lb. L-L

Born 11/14/55 Aguada, PR

Acquired: Drafted from the Philadelphia Phillies' Oklahoma City Club in the Major League Draft on December 2, 1976.

Personal: Guillermo "Willie" Hernandez (Villanueva) attended Martin Hernandez High in Aguada, P.R. He is married, has one son and daughter. Willie's hobby is fishing. He is a welder during the off-season. His hair is black and eyes brown.

Prior to Majors: He played prep baseball and was signed by the Phillies as a free agent in 1974. That season with Spatanburg he led the Western Carolinas League (Class A) in games started (26), complete games (13), innings pitched (190), and strikeouts (179). His 2.75 earned run average ranked ninth. These accomplishments earned him a berth on the WCL All-Star Team. While playing for the Phillies 1974 Florida Winter Instructional League Team, Hernandez recorded a 2.65 ERA. He had a composite won-loss record of 14-6 and a 3.11 in 1975 while pitching for Toledo and Reading of the International League (Class AAA) and Eastern League (Class AA), respectively.

Major Leagues: Willie had a strong rookie season, compiling an 8-7 record with a 3.03 ERA. He was second on the team in game appearances with 67 and recorded 78 strikeouts in 110 innings pitched. This impressive young lefty, then a 21-year-old, appeared as a reliever and combined with Rick Reuschel for a shutout vs. New York on June 24. He picked up his first major league win on May 29 and, three days later, faced six men in relief, striking out five of them. His 1977 performance earned him the Rookie of the Year Award from the Chicago chapter of the Baseball Writers Association of America. In 1978, Willie had the highest won-loss percentage (8-2 record for a .800 percentage) of those Cub pitchers with 10 or more decisions. In 1979, Hernandez had under a 2.00 ERA against San Diego (1.29), San Francisco (1.69), and Atlanta (0.00). Willie notched his four wins in '79 against St. Louis twice, San Diego and Cincinnati.

KELLEHER, Mick IF
5'9" 175 lb. R-R
Born 7/25/47 Seattle, WA

Acquired: In trade with St. Louis Cardinals for Vic Harris on December 17, 1975.

Personal: Michael Dennis Kelleher is married, has one daughter and resides in Santa Barbara, CA, in the off-season. He was graduated at Shoreline High School (Seattle, WA), attended Wenatchee (WA) Junior College and majored in social science at University of Puget Sound (Tacoma, WA). His hobby is buying, collecting and refinishing antique furniture. During the winter months, Mick is a real estate agent. He has hazel eyes, and light brown hair.

Prior to Majors: Kelleher progressed through virtually every type of amateur league. He played Little, Pony, and Babe Ruth Leagues; American Legion; baseball and basketball through high school and junior college; and baseball only at senior college. In his junior prep campaign, 1964, he made the All-Seattle Metropolitan Team. In 1966 and 1967 at Wenatchee, he was named to the All-State Teams. In 1968, he captained Puget Sound and was voted its Most Valuable Player. In 1969, he helped Puget Sound to a NCAA College Division District Eight Championship and netted a berth on the All-District and All-College World Series Teams with a .444 batting average. Mick was drafted by St. Louis in the third round of the free agent draft in June, 1969. In 1971, he led all California League (Class A) shortstops in fielding (.938) and double plays (49); and was voted as C.L.'s Best Defensive Shortstop by the league managers. In 1972, he set all-time American Association (Class AAA) record for highest fielding average (.979) by a shortstop, and also led the circuit in 1974 (.966) and 1975 (.978). He is recipient of Rawlings' Silver Glove Awards (1972 & 1975) as the National Association's best fielding shortstop.

Major Leagues: Mick made his first trip to the majors in late 1972 followed by a short visit in late 1973 with the Cardinals before they sold his contract to Houston on Oct. 23, 1973. He started the 1974 campaign with the Astros, but was soon transferred to the Denver Club in the American Association. He returned to St. Louis on Dec. 13, 1974, to be assigned to its triple-A affiliate at Tulsa before the Cubs acquired him in their trade. Playing for the first full season in the big leagues, he made only 12 errors while handling 491 chances without a flaw for a .976 fielding average in 1976. Only two players in the 24-team major leagues playing in at least 100 games at shortstop had less errors than the quick-footed Kelleher; Houston's Roger Metzger and Cleveland's Frank Duffy had 10 each. Mick's .980 fielding average in 101 games at shortstop was second in the National League to Metzger's .986. Mick in 1979 again served the role as the Chicago Cub "Super-Sub" filling in when needed at third, short and second as well as the role of pinchrunner. "Kelby" hit well against Philadelphia (.304), Atlanta (1.000), Los Angeles (.333), San Diego (.316) and San Francisco (.571). Mick, who is also called "Killer" by his teammates, hit .333 against left handed pitching. In the past four seasons with the Cubs, Mick has made only 22 errors in 1,043 total chances for a .979 percentage.

KINGMAN, Dave OF
6' 6" 210 lb. R-R
Born 12/21/48 Pendleton, OR

Acquired: Signed as a free agent with the Cubs on November 30, 1977.

Personal: David Arthur Kingman is single and resides in San Diego, CA. He attended Mt. Prospect (IL) High School, Harper (Palatine, IL) Junior College and the University of Southern California. He has blond hair and blue eyes and enjoys hunting and fishing. Dave is a sales representative for a major airlines during the off-season.

Prior to Majors: Dave started his brilliant career in high school as a pitcher and was selected by the California Angels in the June 1967 free agent draft. However, he went on to USC where his first varsity season (1968) resulted in an 11-4 record, 1.38 ERA and a hefty .353 average with eight home runs and 26 RBI's in 32 games. He and teammate Jim Barr helped move the Trojans to the College World Series. The Giants picked Dave number one in the June 1970 secondary phase of the draft. He went directly to double-A level with Amarillo, pounding out 15 homers and was elevated to Phoenix (Class AAA) in 1971 where he made the switch to first base and the outfield. He slammed 26 homers and drove in 99 RBI's in 105 games.

Major Leagues: Dave was called up to San Francisco in the late 1971 season and showed his now well-known power by hitting a grand slam off Dave Giusti in his first start. He hit two more off Doc Ellis the next day. Dave stayed with the Giants through 1974, ringing up 77 homers. He was sold to the New York Mets on February 28, 1975. He belted 36 homers in 1975 and was on his way to his finest year in 1976 when he suffered a hand injury in July. At the time of his disabling, Dave was leading the NL with 32 homers and was second in RBI's with 72. He made his first all-star game appearance and amazed hundreds of observers with his tremendous clout. On April 15, 1976, he hit a prodigious home run out of Wrigley Field that sailed over 500 feet. On July 4, 1978 at LA, he walloped three homers and drove in eight RBI's. Dave had a banner year in 1979 in almost every category at the plate. Kingman's 48 home runs topped Mike Schmidt of Philadelphia, and his 45 roundtrippers, for the National League crown and Milwaukee's Gorman Thomas' 45 in the American League to insure Kingman of the major league title. Dave's total is the most since Cubs' all-time home run leader Ernie Banks hit 47 in 1958. The only player in Cub history to hit more in one season was Hall of Famer Hack Wilson who slammed 56 in 1930 to establish the current National League mark. Dave also led the league in slugging percentage with a .613 mark edging Mike Schmidt. Dave's 115 RBI's also put him among the leaders in the National League. Dave was selected Player of the Week in the National League twice on May 20-27 when he hit .458 with four home runs and 10 RBI's, and July 22-29 when he hit .429 with five home runs and six RBI's. Dave also hit three home runs in one game twice in 1979. These feats came on May 17 against the Phillies and July 28 against the Mets. Dave hit .288 for the season which is his highest average since breaking into the major leagues. Dave hit well against Montreal (.303, including a grand slam on 4/20), New York (.364), Pittsburgh (.305) and San Francisco (.318). Dave also hit .307 during the day, .316 at home, .315 versus left handed pitching, .315 on grass turf, .331 with runners in scoring position, .317 with two out, and .600 as a pinchhitter. Dave was also selected Chicago's Player of the Year from the Chicago Chapter of the Baseball Writers Association of America and recipient of the Babe Ruth Crown from the Baltimore Professional Players Association.

KRUKOW, Mike P
6' 4" 195 lb. R-R
Born 1/21/52 Long Beach, CA

Acquired: Signed by the Chicago Cubs.
Personal: Michael Edward Krukow is married, has one son and resides in San Gabriel, CA, in the off-season. Mike was graduated at San Gabriel High School and is majoring in physical education at California Poly State University (San Luis Obispo, CA). He has brown hair and hazel eyes and his hobbies include backpacking and music.
Prior to Majors: Krukow played Little League, Pony League, Babe Ruth League and Connie Mack ball. Mike played baseball, basketball, and football at San Gabriel High School and was named to the All-Pacific League Baseball and Basketball Teams in his senior year. In 1971, he pitched for LaCrescenta in the California Collegiate League. He played varsity baseball in 1972 with a 9-3 record and a 2.44 ERA striking out 105 batters in 115 innings. In 1973, he was 10-3 with a 1.35 ERA and he set the school strikeout record of 126 in 113 innings, tied for the record for most wins in one season and tied for the team lead in home runs (4) to earn a berth on the all-conference team. His collegiate composite record was 25-7 with a 1.93 ERA and 274 strikeouts in 274 innings pitched. His most unusual feat was in amateur baseball when he pitched a no-hitter while walking 17 batters. He was signed to his first pro contract by Gene Handley of the Chicago Cubs. In 1973, Mike led the Gulf Coast League (Rookie Class) in strikeouts (80), and tied for the lead in complete games with four. In 1975, he received Texas League's Gene Lawing Memorial Award "for contributions to baseball on and off the field."
Major Leagues: Mike made a brief major league debut in 1976 and turned in a respectable 1977 rookie season, compiling an 8-14 record, 4.40 ERA and 106 strikeouts. The highlight of Mike's first year in the big leagues came on May 26 when he shut out the Expos on only four hits. He had a poor start in 1978 and was finally optioned to Wichita on May 13. After Paul Reuschel was traded to Cleveland on June 27, Mike was recalled and did a yeoman's job on the mound for the Cubs. He won five straight before sustaining a loss and finished the season with an impressive 9-3 record. Mike had an injury prone year in 1979 which severely hampered his play. Despite this fact, Mike compiled a 9-9 record. Mike was 1-0 against San Diego, Atlanta and Cincinnati. "The Polish Prince's" big day came on June 27th at Wrigley Field when he beat the Philadelphia Phillies 11-4 and hit his first major league home run onto Waveland Avenue. Mike's 119 strike outs gave the Cubs five pitchers above the 100 mark as the Chicagoans paced the National League with 933.

WEEKEND PITCHER

Lefty Ken Holtzman, winner of two no-hit, no-run games for the Cubs, had a very remarkable season in 1967. Limited to pitching in only twelve weekend games while on leave from the army, Holtzman won nine straight without a loss. The soldier-pitcher would fly on Friday night, pitch on Saturday, and return to camp Sunday morning.

LAMP, Dennis P

6' 3" 190 lb. R-R

Born 9/23/52 Los Angeles, CA

Acquired: Signed by the Chicago Cubs.

Personal: Dennis Patrick Lamp is married and resides in Evanston, IL, in the off-season. Dennis was graduated at Saint John Bosco High School in Bellflower, CA. He enjoys music. Dennis has black hair and hazel eyes.

Prior to Majors: Lamp has participated in Little League, Pony League, Colt League and American Legion baseball programs. He played baseball and basketball in high school and was named to the All-Santa Fe League Baseball Team in his junior and senior years as well as being voted the league's Most Valuable Player both seasons. As a senior he won 13 of 15 decisions, allowing only 48 hits in 94 innings while striking out 127. Dennis was signed to his first pro contract by Gene Handley of the Chicago Cubs. In 1972, Lamp was fourth in ERA (1.93) in the Gulf Coast League (Rookie Class) and tied for second in wins with seven. In 1973, he was selected to play in the Midwest League (Class A) All-Star Game after posting a 6-4 record and 2.63 ERA with the Quincy (IL) Club. In 1975, while with Midland (TX), Dennis was 10th in the Texas League (Class AA) in ERA with a 3.33 mark, and led all pitchers in doubleplays with six. Dennis began the 1977 campaign with the parent club in spring training, but returned to the Wichita (Class AAA) team. There he had an excellent season (11-4, 2.94 ERA, 52 SO) and was a member of the American Association All-Star team.

Major Leagues: Dennis debuted in the majors in mid-August 1977. He appeared in 11 games for the Cubs, starting three. He singled in his first major league at bat and did it again his second time up. In 1978, Lamp had a respectable 3.29 earned run average (lowest of all Cub starters) which makes it difficult for one to understand why his record was 7-15. An investigation revealed the Cubs were held scoreless during six of his losses and managed to score only one run in six others for which he was given the loss. With a little luck, Dennis could easily have been 19-3 and certainly was deserving of at least a 15-7 mark as the Cubs averaged 4.1 runs per game in 1978 and eight of his defeats were by these scores: 0-1, 0-1, 0-1, 1-2, 0-3, 1-3, & 1-4. On June 9, 1978, at Wrigley Field—he thrilled a 15,770 Ladies Day crowd by hurling a one-hitter to defeat San Diego 5-0. Gene Richards line drive single to left ruined the no-hitter. After a tough spring training, Dennis settled down to become one of the top hurlers in 1979. After starting the season as a reliever, Dennis got his first start on April 19 against St. Louis and responded with a 3-2 victory. Dennis' next start proved even more rewarding as he blanked the Astros 4-0, tossing a five-hitter. Dennis recorded five complete game victories against Houston (twice), Philadelphia, Pittsburgh and Atlanta.

Personal: Henry Allan Mack is single and resides in Winchester, KY. He was graduated at Rogers Clark High School (Winchester, KY). He has brown hair and eyes and his hobby is fishing.
Prior to Majors: Henry played Little League, Babe Ruth League, and American Legion Ball. In high school he starred in baseball, basketball and football. Henry was Philadelphia's 13th selection in the June, 1976, free agent draft, regular phase. In 1978 Henry tied for the Carolina League in wins (15), second in percentage (.789), strikeouts (158), and seventh in ERA (2.79). This earned Mack a spot on the league all-star team at the end of the season and was voted Carolina pitcher of the Year. He was the starting pitcher in the Carolina All-Star Game and responded by allowing no runs and only one hit in two innings. On July 1, 1978, he pitched a no-hit game for Peninsula against Lynchburg, striking out nine and walking six, but lost 3-2, with Lynchburg scoring three runs in the sixth on a walk, two errors, a sacrifice hit, two wild pitches and sacrifice flies. In 1979 with the Midland Cubs Henry finished fourth in strikeouts in the Texas League with (102).

DAHLEN'S AMAZING STREAK

Bill Dahlen recorded a .274 batting average after 21 years in the National League as a shortstop, but in 1894 he hit .362 thanks to an amazing 42-game hitting streak (June 30 thru Aug. 6). After he was held hitless Aug. 7, the Club infielder then put together a 28-game span (Aug. 8 thru Sept. 9) for a total of 70 games in which he hit safely out of 71 consecutively played games. The 42-game streak is tops in the National League and is second only to Joe DiMaggio's 56 in the American League. No National League player has equalled Dahlen's 70-out-of-71.

MACKO, Steve — IF

Born 5/11/49 — Columbia, SC

Acquired: With Barry Foote, Ted Sizemore, Henry Mack, and Derek Botelho from the Philadelphia Phillies for Manny Trillo, Dave Rader, and Greg Gross on February 23, 1979.
Personal: Jerry Lindsey Martin is married, has two sons, and they reside in Slickerville, NJ. He was graduated at Olympia High School in South Carolina and attended Furman University. His hobbies include hunting and fishing.
Prior to Majors: Martin has participated in Little League, Pony League, Colt League, and American Legion. In high school he lettered in football, basketball, baseball and track. At Furman University Jerry played baseball and basketball. He was most valuable player in 1971 leading Furman to the Southern Conference Championship. In baseball, he hit .278 at Furman to the Southern Conference Championship.
Major Leagues: Jerry can play all three outfield positions. His biggest thrill was hitting a grand slam off Andy Messersmith at Dodger Stadium on June 13, 1975. Jerry proved that he can play regularly in the outfield last season not only with his glove but with his bat as well by making many diving catches in the ivy in center and knocking in key runs. Jerry's .272 average was his highest since he came up to the big leagues on a regular basis in 1975. Jerry's 19 home runs were also his tops since he began playing professional baseball. Jerry led the Cubs in fielding for outfielders with a .981 percentage. He hit best against his ex-teammates Philadelphia (.352), Cincinnati (.408), Houston (.306), San Diego (.378), and San Francisco (.317). Jerry hit .337 in the month of June and .327 versus left handed pitching.

MARTZ, Randy P
6' 4" 210 lb. L-R
Born 5/28/56 Harrisburg, PA

Acquired: Signed by the Chicago Cubs.
Personal: Randy Carl Martz is single and resides in Columbia, SC. He was graduated at Upper Dauphin High School and attended the University of South Carolina. He has brown hair and eyes and his hobby is reading. Randy is a salesman in the off season.
Prior to Majors: Randy played football, basketball and baseball in high school. He attended the University of South Carolina on a football scholarship and did not play baseball his first two years. As a junior, in 1977, he won 14 and lost none with a 1.98 ERA striking out 106 batters in 132 innings, in helping pitch South Carolina to the NCAA Atlantic Regional Championship and second place in the College World Series in Omaha, Nebraska. This earned Randy a berth on the Coaches All-South Carolina, All-South Independent, NCAA All-Atlantic Region, All-College World Series, NCAA College All-American, The Sporting News' College All-America, Academic All-American Teams; South Carolinas' Player of the Year; and he received the Lefty Gomez Plate given by the newspaper Collegiate Baseball to the Most Valuable College Player in the country. Randy was the Cubs' first selection in the June 1977 draft. His greatest thrill in collegiate baseball was beating Clemson 2-1 to end their 26-game winning streak. Randy was fourth in the Texas League in ERA (3.12) in 1978 and played in the Texas League All-Star Game pitching one shutout inning. In 1979 with the Wichita Aeros (Class AAA), he led the league in games started with 26.

THAT'LL TEACH YOU WILD RABBITS

April 26, 1905, Jack McCarthy of the Cubs became the only outfielder in major league history to throw out three runners at the plate, each of whom became the second out of a double play. The victims were the Pirates in a 2-1 loss.

McGLOTHEN, Lynn P
6' 2" 195 lb. L-R
Born 3/27/50 Monroe, LA

Acquired: In trade with San Francisco Giants for Hector Cruz and cash on June 15, 1978.

Pesonal: Lynn Everatt McGlothen is married, has three daughters and resides in Simsboro, LA. He graduated from Grambling (LA) High School and attended Grambling College. Lynn has black hair and brown eyes and enjoys hunting, fishing and listening to music.

Prior to Majors: Lynn demonstrated versatility in all sports while in high school, earning 16 letters in baseball, basketball, football and tennis. He played baseball all four years, losing only two games and was named All-Louisiana in football in 1967. He was orginally signed by the Boston Red Sox after the June 1968 free-agent draft. In 1970, Lynn put together a super season. He was named Carolina League Player of the Year while with Winston-Salem (Class A), leading the league in strikeouts (202), complete games (16), and ERA (2.24) and was also a member of the all-star team. His excellent play encouraged the Boston organization to move him up to Louisville in 1971, where he led the International League (Class AAA) in complete games (8) and was ranked ninth in ERA (3.72). Lynn started the 1972 season with Louisville and after notching a 9-2 record, was called up by the Red Sox for the remainder of the year.

Major Leagues: "Mac" finished the 1972 campaign with Boston, started the 1973 season for them and was sent down to Pawtucket (Class AAA). He posted a 9-9 American League record in the two seasons at Boston, including his first big league win, a 2-0, three-hitter over Minnesota on July 4, 1972. Lynn was traded to the St. Louis Cardinals in December 1973 with whom he enjoyed his best success. He was named to the National League All-Star Team for the first time in 1974. He earned 44 victories in three seasons in St. Louis, including a career high of 16 in 1974. Former teammate Bob Gibson, current teammate Bruce Sutter and McGlothen are the last three National League pitchers to strike out three consecutive batters in an inning on nine straight pitches. Lynn accomplishing that feat on August 19, 1975. Traded to the San Francisco Giants prior to the 1977 season, Lynn spent most of the year on the disabled list, but still managed to put together back-to-back complete game victories over New York and Philadelphia. Used primarily as a long relief pitcher, McGlothen performed commendably for the Cubs in 1978 after his acquisition from the Giants. In 1978, Lynn was 3.00 or below against six of the Cubs 11 opponents and failed to relinquish earned runs to two teams, Cincinnati and Houston, and permitted Montreal only one tally in 8.1 innings of relief. In 1979, Lynn proved to be one of the workhorses of the pitching corps as he led the Cubs in strikeouts fanning 147 opponents while pacing them to a National League high of 933. Lynn tossed six complete games in 1979 winning five. Lynn pitched complete game victories against Montreal, Philadelphia, New York twice, and Pittsburgh. Lynn lost a tough nine-inning contest to Montreal 1-0 allowing only eight hits and striking out eight. Lynn was 3-1 versus Philly in 1979 with a 2.84 ERA and 2-0 against New York with a 2.22 ERA.

ONTIVEROS, Steve IF-OF
6'0" 185 lb. S-L
Born 10/26/51 Bakersfield, CA

Acquired: With Bobby Murcer and Andy Muhlstock from San Francisco Giants for Bill Madlock and Rob Sperring on Feb. 11, 1977.

Personal: Steven Robert Ontiveros is now single, has one son, and resides in Bakersfield, CA. He was graduated at Bakersfield (CA) and his hobbies include basketball, ping pong, and football. Steve has brown hair and eyes. His greatest baseball thrill was hitting a home run in his first pro game.

Prior to Majors: Ontiveros has participated in Little League, American Legion, high school and semi-pro baseball programs. Before graduating from high school in 1969 he helped lead Bakersfield to four straight South Yosemite League Baseball Championships and earned berths on the all-league squads in his sophomore and junior seasons. Ontiveros was signed to his first pro contract by the San Francisco Giants in 1969. In 1969, Steve led Pioneer League (Rookie Class) third basemen in fielding percentage (.898), and in 1970 led Midwest League (Class A) third basemen in fielding (.915), putouts (93), assists (219) and doubleplays (18). In 1971 while with Fresno, Ontiveros led the California League (Class A) in doubles with 33, triples with 10, second in bases on balls (102), led third basemen in total chances (313), and was named third baseman on the California League and National Association Class A All-Star Teams. He was chosen Topps' Player of the Month for July and, in a poll of California League managers, was voted the best batting prospect, best defensive infielder, and the infielder with the best arm. He was the Pacific Coast League batting champion in 1973 with a .357 average, the highest season average in the PCL since 1956, and he led the league in doubles (32) and triples (16). On July 9, 1973, he hit two home runs, two triples and a single in five at bats, driving in seven runs in a 15-4 win. Among the honors he received that season were: being named to the PCL and National Association Class AAA All-Star Teams as an outfielder, voted league's Player of the Month for July, named Topps' Player of the Year and was chosen Minor League Player of the Year by The Sporting News.

Ontiveros, Cont'd

Major Leagues: "Onty" first came to the majors in 1973 when he joined the Giants late in the season, and he hasn't been off a major league roster since. On August 24, 1975, Steve was playing right field and made a spectacular catch on John Milner's looping line drive to save Ed Halicki's no hitter. On September 3, 1975, he enjoyed a career high four-hit game against Houston in the Astrodome. With the Cubs in 1977, he blossomed into a highly respectable third baseman and set his career highs for one season. Among those on the team playing enough to qualify for the league batting race, Steve had the highest batting average (.299) and led in walks (81). Steve enjoyed a successful year in 1979 at the plate as well as playing his usual reliable third base. Steve hit .383 against Atlanta, .360 versus Cincinnati, .302 versus Houston, .320 versus San Diego, and .436 versus San Francisco for a very impressive .350 average against Western Division foes. Steve hit .333 in May, and .333 in August as well as .301 during the day, .304 at home, .301 on grass, .331 with runners in scoring position and .333 as a pinchhitter. In 1979, for the second straight year, he was named as third baseman on the Nuestro All-Star Team.

PAGEL, Karl — OF
Born 3/29/55 — Madison, WS

Acquired: Signed by the Chicago Cubs.
Personal: Karl Douglas Pagel is married and resides in Phoenix, AZ, in the off-season. He is a graduate of Washington High in Phoenix and attended Glendale (AZ) Junior College and University of Texas at Austin. He was in Who's Who in Junior Colleges in 1975 and was on the National Honor Society in high school. He has brown hair, blue eyes and his hobbies are listening to music and watching movies. He is in insurance sales in the off-season.
Prior to Majors: "Pongo" played all three major sports in high school and helped lead the baseball team, coached by his father Tom, to a division championship in his junior year. As a senior, Karl batted .435 won 9 and lost 4 while pitching three no-hitters and striking out 150 batters. He was an all-division pitcher and an all-stater as a pitcher and outfielder. He batted .420 and set a Glendale record with 46 runs-bated-in in 1974 which earned him a berth on the National JC All-American Team. At Texas in 1976 he batted .307 in 58 games with eight home runs and 43 RBI. He signed a professional contract with scout Bill Capps after the Cubs had drafted him in first round of secondary phase of June 1976 free agent draft. He had been drafted earlier by the Mets (January 1975) and Cardinals (June 1975), but did not sign. After a slow start, he blossomed in his second year as a professional. He led Midland, Cub Class AA affiliate, and the Texas League in home runs (28), base on balls (88), and slugging percentage (.637). He was second in RBI's (104) and total bases (261). He was selected to the Texas All-Star Team and was named Texas League's Most Valuable Player. After a .458 slugging percentage, 23 home runs (two with bases loaded), and 86 RBI's at Wichita in the American Association (Class AAA), Karl was elevated to the majors on September 1, 1978. Karl was named Minor League Player of the Year by THE SPORTING NEWS in 1979 after a banner year with the Wichita Aeros of the American Association (Class AAA). Here is a list of his accomplishments: Most Valuable PLayer of the American Association and American Association leader in: total bases (291), home runs (39), RBI's (123) and walks (100). Karl was elevated to the majors on August 28, 1979.

REUSCHEL, Rick P

6′ 3″ 230 lb. R-R

Born 5/16/49 Quincy, IL

Acquired: Signed by the Chicago Cubs.

Personal: Rick Eugene Reuschel is married, has one son, one daughter, and resides in nearby Arlington Heights, IL; and also owns a farm in southern Wisconsin. He was graduated at Central High School in Camp Point, IL, and majored in Mathematics at Western (Macomb) Illinois University. His hobbies include carpentry and basketball. Rick has brown hair and eyes.

Prior to Majors: Rick played in Little League and Pony League ball in Golden, IL, and American Legion ball in Keokuk, IA. He pitched on the varsity baseball team at Western Illinois University. In 1968, as a member of the Galesburg Pioneers of the Central Illinois Collegiate League, Rick earned a 4-4 record with a 3.42 ERA. In 1969, he helped guide Western Illinois to the Illinois Intercollegiate Athletic Conference Championship with a superb 10-0 record and a 1.29 ERA. That same year Reuschel was named to the all-conference and all-district teams. Rick was signed to his first pro contract by Elvin Tappe of the Chicago Cubs. In 1970, Reuschel led the Northern League in complete games with seven. When he was promoted to the big club from Wichita in June, 1972, Reuschel was leading the American Association (Class AAA) in ERA (1.33), wins (9), complete games (8), and shutouts (3).

Major Leagues: In his first major league game, June 19, 1972, Rick struck out the only man he faced, Bobby Bonds of San Francisco. The next day he recorded his first big league win in six innings of relief, and hit a double in his first time at bat for his first RBI. In 1974, he led the National League pitchers in total chances (84). A rare baseball phenomenon took place on August 21, 1975, vs. the Dodgers, when Rick and his older brother, Paul, combined to blank the Dodgers for nine innings, giving Rick the win and Paul the save. Rick started 37 of his 38 games in 1976, earning one save in his only relief appearance. Rick's lowest hit game of his career was on June 4 vs. Houston, when he pitched eight innings, allowing only one unearned run on two hits, but he lost the heartbreaker 1-0. It was 1977 when Rick finally reached the pitcher's most coveted plateau for one season. He not only became the Cubs' 24th 20-game winner and the first since Fergie Jenkins won 20 in 1972. Rick's performance earned him a berth on the National League All-Star Team. He paced his teammates with complete games (8), shutouts (4), innings pitched (252), and strikeouts (166). He set club highs for longest winning streak (from June 6 to July 11, 6 wins), most consecutive scoreless innings (20.2, June 28 to July 12), and most strikeouts in one game (11, August 17 vs. Pittsburgh). In 1979, Rick's 36 games started, 18 wins, and 239 innings pitched were tops on the club. Rick went the distance on five occasions defeating Montreal, San Francisco, Philadelphia, and Pittsburgh twice. Reuschel beat the World Champion Pittsburgh Pirates on June 24, 5-0, allowing only five hits. Rick won a total of seven games in the month of August without a defeat beating St. Louis (4-2 and 7-3), Pittsburgh (15-2), San Francisco (6-5 and 4-1), and San Diego (3-1 and 3-1). This earned him the Player of the Month Award for August in the National League. His statistics in August: 7-0 W-L, 55 innings pitched, 48 hits, 10 earned runs, 42 strikeouts, 15 walks, for a 1.64 earned run average.

WHAT A DULL DAY FOR RIP

June 29, 1937, Rip Collins played first base for the Cubs and did not have a single chance (no putouts, no assist).

Reuschel, Cont'd

RILEY, George P
6' 4" 200 lb. L-L
Born 10/6/56 Philadelphia, PA

Acquired: Signed by the Chicago Cubs.
Personal: George Michael Riley is single and has brown hair and blue eyes. He resides in Philadelphia where he attended South Philadelphia High School. His hobbies include cars, music and fishing.
Prior to Majors: George began his baseball career in high school where he played baseball, basketball and football. In his senior year (1974) he helped the school win the Philadelphia City Baseball Championship. His biggest baseball thrills have been winning the city title game and pitching four no-hitters in a row. Picked fourth by the Cubs in the June 1974 free agent draft, George was assigned to Bradenton (Rookie) where he appeared in five games, striking out 16. In 1975, with Key West (Class A), he tied for the Florida State League lead in assists by a pitcher (36). He split the 1976 campaign in Pompano Beach (Class A) and Midland (Class AA), pitching a no-hit game against Ft. Lauderdale on July 11 for Pompano. George participated in the 1976 Arizona Instructional League, making 10 appearances with a 3.38 ERA. Last season, a tryout with Wichita (Class AAA) gave George a 4.85 ERA in nine games, so he returned to Midland (Class AA) and finished the season with a 3-1 record, along with 57 strikeouts in 75 innings and six saves, second highest on the team.
Major Leagues: "Heat" had a big thrill in 1979 being the starting pitcher in a nationally televised game against The World Champion Pittsburgh Pirates on September 22nd. George pitched well but lost the game 4-1. He started the 1979 season with Wichita (Class AAA) where he compiled a 3-8 record striking out 53 for a 6.08 ERA with five saves. He was called up to the parent club on August 17, 1979. George, with his blazing fastball, should be a welcome addition to the club moundsmen in 1980.

SEGELKE, Herman P
6' 4" 215 lb. R-R
Born 4/24/58 San Mateo, CA

Acquired: Signed by the Chicago Cubs.
Personal: Herman Neils Segelke is single and resides in South San Francisco, CA. He is employed by a mattress company in the off-season. His hobbies include hunting, fishing and football. Herman has red hair and brown eyes.
Prior to Majors: Segelke played in the Police Athletic League, Pony League and the Joe DiMaggio League. In football he won the National Punt, Pass and Kick competition for his age group at the 1968 Pro Bowl Game in the Orange Bowl (Miami, FL). Herman played football and baseball in high school. In his senior year he won 11 and lost 2 with a 1.60 ERA, averaging 12 strikeouts a game. He pitched El Camino to the League and Region I championships. He was named to the All-North Peninsula League, All-San Mateo County, All-Region I, All-Central Coast Section, All-Northern California and High School All-American District VIII; and was named Most Valuable Player in the League, Region and Central Coast Section. His greatest baseball thrill was pitching a no-hit, no-run game against San Mateo in the first start of his senior year, after a ten-month layoff due to tendinitis, while twenty major league scouts were watching. Segelke was Chicago's first selection in the June 1976, free agent draft, regular phase, the seventh player selected in the country. Herman enjoyed a great deal of success in 1979 with the Midland Cubs (Class AA). His 13 wins were tops on the club along with his innings pitched. His strikeout total of 81 was third on the team.

IT'S NOT TOO LATE TO COME BACK, ERNIE

October 3, 1897, Cap Anson closed a remarkable 27-year career with a .339 career average which started in the National Association in 1871. He hit two home runs against St. Louis that game, and at age 46, he became the oldest player to homer in the majors.

SUTTER, Bruce P
6' 2" 190 lb. R-R
Born 1/8/53 Lancaster, PA

Acquired: Signed by the Chicago Cubs.
Personal: Howard Bruce Sutter is married, has three sons, and resides in Arlington Heights, IL, in the off-season. Bruce was graduated at Donegal High School (Mt. Joy, PA). His hobbies include hunting and fishing. Bruce has blue eyes and brown hair.
Prior to Majors: Bruce excelled in baseball, basket-ball, and football at Donegal High School and received honors in each sport. He helped lead the baseball team to the Lancaster County Championship and was chosen all-county pitcher. He was instrumental in the basketball team winning the Pennsylvania Interscholastic Athletic Association District Three title. In football he was chosen the district's outstanding quarterback. He captained the basketball and football teams in his senior year and received the school's Outstanding Athlete Award. Sutter played American Legion ball, leading Mount Joy's team to the District Ten championship and was voted the district's best pitcher. He played semi-pro ball for Hippey's Raiders in the Lebanon Valley League. Sutter was signed to his first pro contract by Ralph DiLullo of the Chicago Cubs. In the fall 1974, Bruce pitched for the Cubs team in the Arizona Instructional League posting a 3-0 record with a 0.90 ERA and led the league with seven saves.
Major Leagues: Bruce was called up to the Cubs on May 8, 1976, and made his major league debut the next day against the Cincinnati Reds. He was credited with his first major league save on May 23 against the Giants. Sutter established himself as the ace righthander in the bull pen and led all Cub relievers in wins with six, saves with 10, and an ERA of 2.71. The local chapter of BBWAA named Bruce the 1976 Rookie of the Year. Phenomenal is the only word to describe Bruce's contributions to the 1977 Cub campaign. The young forkball (he calls it "split-fingered fast ball") specialist not only won seven games in 1977, but he saved 31 to tie Ted Abernathy's Cub save record established in 1965. His 1.35 ERA was lowest in the majors of those pitching in 100-or-more innings. On September 8, Bruce tied a National League record for the most consecutive strikeouts by a relief pitcher when he struck out the first six men he faced. In the ninth inning of the same game vs. the Expos, he struck out the side on nine pitches to become the most recent N.L. player to accomplish such a feat since teammate Lynn McGlothen did so as a Cardinal on August 19, 1975. Bruce was fifth in the balloting for the Cy Young Award and was an easy choice as the recipient of the Headliner Award from the Chicago Chapter of the BBWAA for his 1977 performance. Bruce, since arriving on the major league scene, has accumulated the following saves:

1976	10
1977	31
1978	27
1979	37
Total	105

These, added to his 27 big league victories, gives him direct participation in 132 Cub wins or an average of 33 per season. Relatively injury free, Bruce had his best season in 1979 when he was named the Cy Young winner in the National League narrowly defeating Joe Niekro of Houston. Sutter's 37 saves tied Clay Carroll (1972) and Rollie Fingers (1978) National League record and was only one shy of the major league mark of 38 set by John Hiller (Detroit, 1973). His saves, also tops in the majors this year, added to his wins (six) indicates Sutter participated directly in 43 of the Cubs' 80 wins this season (54%). This enabled Bruce to capture Rolaid's Relief Man of the Year award with 80 points (two for each win and save, minus one for each loss) beating out Kent Tekulve of Pittsburgh. Bruce's 37 saves in 1979 also severed the Cub mark of 31 saves established by Ted Abernathy (1965) and tied by Sutter in 1977. In 1979, Bruce was picked by the BBWAA as recipient of the Headliner Award once again. Bruce's 2.23 ERA was lowest in the National League among those with 100-or-more innings pitched. He was also selected Player of the Week in the National League for the week of April 15-22 compiling four saves and a 0.00 ERA in 6.2 innings pitched. Bruce has also been the winning pitcher in the last two Major League All-Star Games. Only one other pitcher in the history of the classic (Lefty Gomez, 3) has won more. Bruce missed his first all-star game due to an injury.

THOMPSON, Scot IF-OF
6' 3" 175 lb. L-L
Born 12/7/55 Grove City, PA

Acquired: Signed by the Chicago Cubs.

Personal: Vernon Scot Thompson is married and resides in Mars, PA, in the off-season. He was graduated at Knoch High School in Saxonburg, PA. He has brown hair and eyes; and enjoys hunting and cards. Scot is a carpenter during the winter months. Scot's father, William K. Thompson, IB-OF, played pro ball for 10 years (1953-1962), was in the A's and Braves farm systems, playing principally in Texas League, Southern Association and South Atlantic League.

Prior to Majors: Thompson's high school did not field a baseball team; therefore, he participated in basketball, football, and track. He made all-selection in basketball and was voted the school's Most Valuable Player in his last two seasons. Scot once caught three touch down passes in one game in football. He played baseball in Little League; Senior LL; American Legion at Saxonburg, PA; and in the Mid-County League at Penn Township, PA. He was drafted in the first round of the June 1974 free agent draft by the Cubs and signed by Frank DeMoss. In 1974, he was named to the Gulf Coast League (Rookie Class) All-Star Team. In 1975, he led Florida State League (Class A) outfielders with six double plays. Following that season he finished second (.333) in the Arizona Winter Instructional League batting race and was tied for the lead in triples. In 1976, he played most of his games at first base at Midland in the Texas League (Class AA), but he is also an outfielder. In 116 games at both positions, he made only 12 errors. In 1978, Thompson led his Wichita teammates in every major batting category except home runs and RBI's. His stolen bases (35) were second on the team to Rodney Scott's 36. Thompson's 169 hits set a Wichita Club record and was only one shy of John "Champ" Summers, a 30-year-old Indianapolis player, who led the American Association (Class AAA). Thompson's batting average ranked fifth in the loop of those players with 400-or-more at bats and was fifth in stolen bases.

Major Leagues: On Sept. 3, the third day after reaching the majors, Scot was inserted as a pinchhitter. Using his excellent speed afoot, he collected an infield hit to drive in a run. He continued to be successful in that role, batting .500 with six hits in 12 trips to the plate. He concluded his brilliant .417 burst into the majors with a four-for-four performance in the final game of the season (Oct. 1). Included were three doubles which tied Dave Kingman and several other players for the National League high in 1978. In 1979, "Scotty" was named Co-Rookie of the Year in the Chicago area by the Chicago BBWAA along with Russ Baumgarten of the Chicago White Sox. He was also third in the voting for Rookie of the Year in the National League behind Jeff Leonard (Houston) and winner Rick Sutcliffe (L.A.). Scot's consistent play in the outfield and hits hitting were the "talk of the town" all season. A product of the Cub farm system, he was also chosen to the Topps' Major League Rookie All-Star team. Thompson reached the 100 hit plateau in his first full season with the Cubs and recorded a respectable .289 average. He hit well against Montreal (.364), New York (.368), Atlanta (.467), Houston (.303), San Diego (.462) and San Francisco (.333). Against Western Division foes, Scot hit .309, month of April (.355), May (.318), July (.358), during the day (.316), Wrigley Field (.309), Grass (.316) and (.345) as a pinchhitter.

June 25, 1937, Augie Galan of the Cubs became the first switch hitter to belt a home run lefthanded and one righthanded in the same game. The Cubs beat the Dodgers 11-2.

TIDROW, Dick P

6' 4" 210 lb. R-R

Born 5/14/47 San Francisco, CA

Acquired: In trade with New York Yankees for Ray Burris on May 23, 1979.

Personal: Richard William Tidrow is married, has a son and daughter, and resides in Kansas City, MO, in the off season. He was graduated at Mount Eden High School and attended Chabot Junior College. Dick has brown hair and brown eyes and enjoys music.

Prior to Majors: Dick played baseball at Mount Eden High School in Haywood, CA. He was selected to the all-star team in his high school area. At Chabot Junior College he played baseball and made the Junior College All-Star Team. In the minor leagues he was selected pitcher of the year in 1969 for Reno in the California League (Class A).

Major Leagues: Dick began his major league career with Cleveland in 1972 where he was 14-15 with a 2.77 earned run average which earned him Sporting News Rookie Pitcher of the Year. In 1973 with Cleveland, Dick was 14-16 with a 4.42 ERA. On April 26, 1974, Cleveland traded him along with Chris Chambliss and Cecil Upshaw to the New York Yankees for Fritz Peterson, Steve Kline, Fred Beene and Tom Buskey. Dick was used primarily as a starter with the Yankees but also saw action in both short and long relief. Tidrow was the winning pitcher in the first game ever played in the "new" Yankee Stadium. "Mr. Dirt" picked up the slack in the Cub bullpen and was a good reason for Sutter's success and eventual Cy Young trophy. Tidrow is always willing to take the ball and pitch whenever needed. His 63 games were tops on the Cub staff and his .687 winning percentage was also tops. His 11 wins tied him with Dennis Lamp for second on the club. Dick was selected Player of the Month in the National League in July going 5-0 with 13 strikeouts for an amazing 0.75 ERA. With Sutter and Tidrow in the bullpen in 1980, the Cubs again will have two of the premier relievers in the league.

TYSON, Mike — IF
5' 9" — 170 lb. — R-R
Born 1/13/50 Rocky Mount, NC

Acquired: In trade with the St. Louis Cardinals for Donnie Moore on October 17, 1979.

Personal: Michael Ray Tyson is married, has a son and a daughter, and resides in Florissant, MO, in the off season. He was graduated at North Nash High School (Rocky Mount, NC) and Indian River JC (Fort Pierce, FL). Mike's hobby is golf. He has brown hair and eyes.

Prior to Majors: Mike was the only person ever to have lettered in four sports (football, basketball, baseball and track) in Nash High School. He was elected baseball captain all four years in high school and selected all-state in the final two. He also played baseball for Indian River JC where he captained the club for two years and won the most valuable player award in the all-star game his second year. Tyson was signed to the Cardinals in 1971 and assigned to the St. Petersburg (FL) Club (Class A). In 1972, he led the American Association second basemen in double plays with 97.

Major Leagues: Tyson's first year with the Cardinals was in 1972, but he only appeared in 13 games. His first full season was 1973 when he batted .243 and was named Cardinal Rookie of the Year by the St. Louis chapter of Baseball Writers'. In 1978, Mike hit an even .300 against the Cubs. The steady fielding pivot man in 1979 spent a good portion of the year on the disabled list. In 1974, Mike led the National League shortstops in double plays with 108. Added to teammates Joe Torre and Ted Sizemore totals, the threesome were primarily responsible for the Cardinal record of 191 double plays. Of his 19 home runs, three were off the Pirate's hard-throwing John Candelaria including a grand slam, his first, on July 5, 1977. Started the National League's only triple play of the season and the Cardinal's first since 1965 when he stabbed a liner off the bat of Astro Willie Crawford (May 8, 1977) and fired to Don Kessinger to Keith Hernandez.

TURGEON, Mike — IF
6' 2" — 180 lb. — S-R
Born 3/9/56 — Groton, CT

Acquired: Signed by the Chicago Cubs.

Personal: Michael Alan Turgeon is single and resides in Groton, CT. He was graduated at St. Bernard High School in 1974 and Eastern Connecticut State College in 1977. He has brown hair and brown eyes. His hobbies include fishing and golf.

Prior to Majors: "Turg" played baseball and basketball in high school. In his senior year he played in the Connecticut East-West High School All-Star Game. In 1976, at Eastern Connecticut State he hit .317 in 46 games with 20 RBI's and 10 stolen bases and in 1977 he batted .377 with 13 doubles, four triples, five home runs and 25 RBI's. In 1976 and 1977, Mike was named the shortstop on the NCAA Division III All-District One, New England first team. Mike led the New York-Penn League in batting (.344), hits (98) and total bases (156), was third in runs scored (64) and tied for fifth in home runs with (10). He was also second among second baseman in fielding with a (.967) average and was named to the league and National Association Short-Season Class A League All-Star Teams; was chosen New York-Penn League's Topps Player of the Month for August; Topps Player of the Year; and voted New York-Penn Leagues MVP. Mike also received the Kinsella Award as Rookie-of-the-Year and Stedler Award given annually to the player who is likely to go the farthest in professional baseball

Born 11/10/51 San Francisco, CA

Acquired: In trade with Cleveland Indians for Joe Wallis on June 15, 1978.

Personal: Michael Lewis Vail is married, has one son and resides in St. Petersburg, FL. He graduated from De Anza Junior College (Cupertino, CA). Mike has brown hair and blue eyes. His hobbies are collecting stamps and coins and breeding Persian cats.

Prior to Majors: Mike was signed by the St. Louis Cardinals organization after college graduation. He was assigned to the Sarasota (Rookie) club where he hit 253 in 35 games. In 1972, he moved up to Class A ball, playing for Modesto and Cedar Rapids, and finished the season in Arkansas (Class AA). Mike returned to Modesto of the California League in 1973, batting .278 with 15 home runs, 80 RBI's and 31 doubles. He began the 1974 season in Modesto, posting a .357 average with seven roundtrippers and 41 RBI's. His effective play earned him a promotion to Arkansas of the Texas League, where he batted .314. After the 1974 campaign, Mike was traded with Jack Heidemann to the New York Mets organization for Teddy Martinez and was assigned to Tidewater (Class AAA) of the International League where he had a superb year. He was named the International League's Player for 1975 and led the league in hits (140), triples (9), RBI's (79), and batting (.342).

Major Leagues: Mike was called up to the big leagues by the New York Mets on August 17, 1975, after his superlative play in Tidewater. He continued his hot pace as he put together a 23-game hitting streak that was the season's longest in the majors; tied the National League record for a rookie; equalled the Mets' club record and fell only three short of Guy Curtright's major league freshman record for the 1943 White Sox. Hampered by an off-season foot injury that placed Mike on the disabled list for half of the 1976 swing, he played in 53 games, batting .217, but he came back in 1977 to notch a .262 average in 108 games with eight homers and 35 RBI's. He started 69 games overall and batted .351 vs. left-handed pitching. After Bobby Murcer was traded to the Yankees, Mike saw more playing time. Mike's hitting was a plus to the Cub cause in 1979. Mike came through when needed especially on June 30th when he blasted a bases loaded clout over the ivy in left against his former teammates the New York Mets. Vail hit well against Montreal (.303), Philadelphia (.371), Pittsburgh (.360), St. Louis (.750) for a .342 average against Eastern Division foes. Against Western Division opponents, Mike compiled a .323 average paced by impressive marks against: Atlanta (.429), Houston (.571), Los Angeles (.333) and San Diego (.364). Mike hit .500 in April, .500 in June, .367 in August and .324 in September; .343 during the day, .310 at night, .363 at home, .394 versus left handed pitching, .348 on grass and .333 with runners in scoring position.

FREE AGENT DRAFT

Major league and National Association clubs participate in two meetings a year for the purpose of drafting free agent player talent. Selection of a free agent entitles the club to the exclusive rights of negotiation with the player for a specified period (from the date of selection until 15 days prior to the next draft meeting). Draft meetings are held in June and January.

There are two categories to each draft meeting:

(1) Regular Phase—Selection of free agents is in inverse order of major league standings. Each organization may select only one player for each of its major league, "AAA" and "AA" rosters but is not limited to the number of picks for "A" level. Minor league clubs select in the same order as their parent clubs.

(2) Secondary Phase—Selection is of free agents who had been drafted at a previous meeting, but who were not subsequently signed during the negotiation period. It is possible for a club to redraft a player whom it had been unable to sign after the original selection, but only with written consent of that player. Order of selection in the secondary phase is determined by lot.

HIATT, Jack — WICHITA AEROS

Jack Hiatt played 66 of his 483 major league games with the Cubs before concluding his eight-year career in 1972. Besides the Cubs, Hiatt caught for the Angels, the Giants, the Expos and finally the Astros. After a player-coach role with the Wichita Aeros under Mike Roarke, Jack was named manager of the Cubs' Bradenton (Fla.) Club of the Gulf Coast League (Rookie Class) in 1975. He earned his promotion to the Pompano Beach Club in the Florida State League (Class A) in 1976. After three seasons at Pompano Beach, Jack has been promoted to manage the Midland Clubs in the Texas League (Class AA). He took over the reins at Wichita in the American Association in 1978. One of Jack's greatest thrills in baseball was a pinch home run off Sandy Koufax in his first time at bat in the National League.

HUNDLEY, Randy — MIDLAND CUBS

Randy was promoted to Midland (Texas League) in 1979 after his initial season as manager at Bradenton in 1978. His team won the Western Division in the second half of the 1979 campaign. Randy led the rookies to a record of 30 wins and 24 losses, and was eliminated from the championship the second to the last day of the season. Randy signed his first professional contract with the San Francisco Giants organization in 1960, played with the Giants briefly in 1964 and 1965 and joined the Cubs for the 1966 season. Randy was rated as one of the better defensive catchers earning the Golden Glove Award in 1967. He established the following major league records: Most home runs, catcher, rookie season (19), 1966; most games, catcher, season (160), 1968; highest fielding average, catcher, season (150 or more games), .996, in 1967; fewest errors by catcher, season (150 or more games), 4, in 1967. He led the National League catchers in doubleplays with 17 in 1969.

NAPIER, Jim — QUAD CITY CUBS

Jim Napier joined the Cub organization in 1979 as manager of the Quad City Cubs and promptly led them to a Midwest League (Class A) championship. Napier managed at Knoxville (TN) in the Southern League (Class AA) in 1973, 74, 75, and 77, and in Appleton (WI) of the Midwest League (Class A) in 1976. During his tenure at Knoxville, his squad captured the league championship in 1974. "Nape" was a catcher during 13 years as a professional (1958-1972). He was out of baseball in 1966. He spent most of his time in Class AAA ball with San Diego, Indianapolis, and Tucson. He was named all-star catcher in the Midwest League (1958) and in South Atlantic League (1960). He caught on three consecutive pennant winners (Indianapolis 1962-3, and Lynchburgh 1964). Walter, his older brother, was an outfielder in Boston's organization (1956-60).

MORALES, Rich — SARASOTA CUBS

Rich was hired by the Cubs in 1980 to manage the Sarasota Cubs in the Gulf Coast League (Rookie Class). He led Medford (Oregon) to a Northwest League (Class A) second place finish in the Oakland A's chain. Rich was an infielder during his eight years of major league profession with the Chicago White Sox and the San Diego Padres. He was primarily used as a utility infielder in the big league and saw most of his action at shortstop.

MOSS, Les — PITCHING INSTR.

Les was hired as pitching instructor for the Cubs in 1979. He started his major league career in 1946 with the St. Louis Browns of the American League. Moss, who was replaced by Sparky Anderson as the Detroit field manager, played 19 years in professional baseball as a catcher. He played for the St. Louis Browns, the Baltimore Orioles, and the Chicago White Sox. Moss managed 12 years in the minors with four championships. His teams finished below third place only once. He was named Minor League Manager of the Year by THE SPORTING NEWS following last season's 78-58 won-loss record at Evansville in the American Association (Class AAA). He also scouted for the White Sox in 1961, 1965, and 1969. He coached for the Southsiders in 1967, 1968, and 1970.

ADAMS, Bobby — INFIELD INSTR.

Bobby Adams spent 14 years in the major leagues prepping for his present position: teaching the art of infield play to the young players in the Cubs' affiliated clubs. The Cubs were one of the four clubs Adams played for in the majors. The others were the Reds, his original club; the Orioles; and the White Sox. In 1966, Bobb moved into the executive end of baseball, serving six years as the president of the Cubs' Tacoma club, and one at Midland. Bobby returned to the field in 1973, and is presently in his seventh season in his latest role.

In Minor Leagues

Karl Pagel Named Player of the Year

Karl Pagel made it easy for the sportswriters chosen by Topps Chewing Gum to pick the 1979 Minor League Player of the Year.

He simply led the American Association (Class AAA) in home runs (39), total bases (291), runs-batted-in (123), and walks (100) while playing in all of the Wichita Aeros' games. His performance also earned him the Association's Most Valuable Player Award and a berth on Topps Class AAA Minor League All-Star Team.

Pagel, 24, also batted .316 while completing his fourth season with the Chicago Cub organization and his second with the Aeros.

Karl—who was born in Madison, WS, but resides in Phoenix, AZ—attended Glendale (AZ) Junior College and the University of Texas at Austin before he was signed to a professional pact by Cubs scout Bill Capps. Karl had been drafted by the Cubs in the first round of the secondary phase of the June 1976 free agent draft.

They started him at double-A with the Midland Cubs in the Texas League, but the transaction from college baseball to that high a classification proved too great as he hit only one homer and batted only .186 in 15 games.

Sending him to Pompano Beach in the Florida State League (Class A) proved more to his level at the time as he increased his average to .254 in 41 games.

But it was back to Midland in 1977 and he proved the confidence the Cubs had invested in him was worth it all. In 118 games, he slammed 28 homers, 6 triples, 28 doubles, scored 99 runs, and drove in 104 while batting .334. He was an easy choice for the all-star team and earned his first Most Valuable Player Award in professional baseball.

In 1978, the lefthanded hitting slugger was elevated to Wichita where he batted .268 with 81 runs, 27 doubles, 5 triples, 23 homers, 91 walks and 86 RBI's in 134 games.

Pagel, who is an insurance salesman in the off-season, is anxiously waiting the start of the Spring Training.

CHICAGO CUBS ORGANIZATION OF THE YEAR AWARD

The Chicago Cubs are the recipient of the 1979 Baseball Organization of the Year Award from Topps Chewing Gum, Inc. This is the first time the Cubs have won the honor since the inception of the awards in 1966.

The trophy is given annually as part of the extensive Topps awards program which honors outstanding major league rookies, minor league players and baseball scouts. The award is presented every year to a major league organization based upon the players in the organization who received Topps awards during the season. A specific number of points are given for each individual award.

Outfielder Scot Thompson was voted a member of the Topps Major League Rookie All-Star Team.

Karl Pagel, of the Wichita Aeros in the American Association, received the J. G. Taylor Spink Minor League Player of the Year Award, the George M. Trautman Player of the Year Award in the American Association, and was also named a member of the Topps Class AAA All-Star Team.

Pagel, who joined the Cubs organization in September, had an outstanding minor league season compiling a batting average of .316, hitting 39 home runs, and ending the season with 123 RBI's.

Other winners of Player of the Year Awards in their leagues were Dave Stockstill of Wausau, in the Midwest League, and Scott Fletcher of Geneva, in the New York-Pennsylvania League.

Runners-up to Chicago for the Organization of the Year Award were the New York Yankees in second place with six Players of the Month and six players on classification all-star teams; the Pittsburgh Pirates with four players of the Month and two on all-star teams; and the Los Angeles Dodgers with five Players of the Month and four players on all-star teams.

Previous winners of the Organization of the Year Award are:

1966 - Baltimore Orioles; 1967 - Los Angeles Dodgers; 1968 - New York Yankees; 1969 - Philadelphia Phillies; 1970 - Los Angeles Dodgers; 1971 - Baltimore Orioles; 1972 - Baltimore Orioles; 1973- New York Yankees; 1974 - California Angeles; 1975 - San Diego Padres; 1976 California Angels; 1977 Montreal Expos; 1978 - Cincinnati Reds.

CUBS' "HOME AWAY FROM HOME" IN ARIZONA

The Cubs returned to Mesa, Arizona, in 1979 re-establishing their Spring Training Camp there for the first time since 1965. However, instead of old Rendezvous Park, the Cubs now train in new HoHoKam Park on North Center Street just north of Brown Road.

The Park was opened on March 11, 1977, and was previously the spring home of the Oakland A's. The Cubs also have three nearby diamonds at Fitch Park on which to practice and for workouts of squad members who are not playing during exhibition games. This is a plus for the Cubs as they not only prepare for the current season but build for the future.

A group of Mesa businessmen called the HoHoKams provide assistance to the Cubs in operating the Park, selling tickets, etc. The HoHoKams and the Park are named after the Indian tribe that inhabited the region many years ago. They were the first to bring water to the dry area by a system of canals which can still be traced today.

Mesa is only the fourth training site used by the Chicago Cubs in over 50 years. They trained for 26 years from 1921 thru 1951, excluding the World War II years, at Catalina Island. Mesa was home of the Cubs from 1952 through 1965. After a one-year stop at Long Beach, California, the Cubs set up camp at Scottsdale, Arizona where they remained through the Spring of 1978.

Mesa, a friendly city which still harbors many Cubs fans from past days, is located just southeast of Scottsdale and Phoenix. It has a population over 150,000.

GENERAL RULES INFORMATION

Player Limits: Clubs must cut active roster to a maximum of 25 players on opening day. . . . From Sept. 1 to opening day, clubs may carry up to 40 players.

Trades within the National League: From midnight the last day of the season to midnight June 15, players contracts may be traded or sold without getting waivers. . . . From June 15 to the end of the season, league waivers are necessary.

Waivers: Players contracts may be available for purchase by other clubs in reverse order of the League standings at the time waivers expire, if more than 30 days after opening day. Otherwise, in reverse order of the standing at the close of the previous season.

Inter-League Trades: From midnight on the fifth day after the completion of the World Series to midnight of the day preceeding the last day of the Winter Meetings and from February 15 to midnight, March 15, player contracts may be traded or sold between clubs of the National and American League without waivers. . . . From midnight of the final day of the Winter Meetings each December, to midnight, June 15, and from the last day of the season through the fourth day after the completion of the World Series, waivers are necessary in the assignor's league. . . . From midnight, June 15, to the last day of the season, waivers from all major league clubs are necessary.

Regulation Game: A regulation game consists of nine innings unless extended because of a tie score or shortened because (1) the home team needs none of its half of the ninth or only part of it; or (2) because the umpire-in-chief calls the game after five completed innings. A regulation game may be less than five innings if the home team is ahead after the first of the fifth, or takes the lead or ties the score while at bat in the fifth.

Tie Game: A regulation game that is called by the umpire-in-chief when both teams have the same number of runs is a tie game. Individual player performances are official and are entered in the records, but the game does not count in the League standings and may be re-scheduled at a later date.

Suspended Game: A game becomes a suspended game if it is terminated for any of the following reasons: (1) a curfew imposed by law; (2) a time limit permissible under the league rules; (3) light failure or malfunction of a mechancial field device under control of the home club (including automatic tarpaulin or water removal equipment; or (4) darkness because of any law, the lights may not be turned on. No game called because of a curfew or a time limit shall be a suspended game unless it has progressed far enough to have been a regulation game (see above). A game called under either provision (3) or (4) shall be a suspended game at any time after it starts. Note: weather and similar conditions shall take precedence in determining whether a called game shall be a suspended game. A game can only be considered a suspended game if stopped for any of the four reasons specified. Any legal game called due to weather with the score tied is a "tie game" and must be replayed in its entirety.

HIGHLIGHTS OF CUBS HISTORY

The Chicago Cubs are rich in heritage. The team is most proud of the fact that it is the only one of the original eight charter members of the National League which has operated continuously in the same city in which it was franchised over 100 years ago.

One of the prime movers behind the establishment of the new National League in 1876 was William A. Hulbert, president of the Chicago Club. He was one of the early presidents of the League, and held the dual roles of league president and club president until his death in 1882.

The Chicago Club was originally known as the "White Stockings," although in those days nicknames were not official. About 1890 that name was dropped and the team was known by several nicknames, most notably the "Colts" and "Orphans." Legend has it that a newspaper writer, searching for a short nickname to fit a headline, first used the name "Cubs" on March 27, 1902. It was officially adopted as the nickname of the club in 1907.

Early in the 20th century the club came under the absentee ownership of the Taft family of Cincinnati, but following the 1915 season a group of influential Chicagoans, among them William Wrigley, Jr., purchased the club. Five years later, in 1921, Wrigley became majority stockholder. After the death of William Wrigley, Jr. in 1932, his son, Philip K. Wrigley, became majority stockholder. Philip K. Wrigley passed away in 1977, leaving his son, William Wrigley, principal owner of the ball club.

NOTES ON CUBS HISTORY

In 104 National League seasons, the Cubs have played 15,189 games, and won 7,885 (148 were tied) of them, both lifetime and major league records.

The Cubs have won 16 National League pennants, second only to the Giants with 18.

The Cubs, as a team, have hit 100 or more home runs in 28 of their last 30 seasons.

The all-time major league record for wins in a season and winning percentage in a season is held by the 1906 Cubs, who won 116 and lost 36, for a .763 percentage.

The 1935 Cubs set the club record for consecutive wins in a season with 21 in a row.

The largest crowd ever to see a baseball game at Wrigley Field, was 51,556 on June 27, 1930, against Brooklyn. Of that number, however, 30,476 were Ladies Day guests and 1,332 passholders so the official paid crowd that day was only 19,748.

The largest Opening Day crowd at Wrigley Field, 45,777, attended the 1978 home opener vs. Pittsburgh on April 14.

WRIGLEY FIELD—HOME OF THE CUBS

The Chicago Cubs have always made it a point to provide fans with the best possible facility in which to watch major league baseball in comfort and convenience, but at the same time, to retain the rich heritage of the Cubs and Wrigley Field. One of the few remaining parks in the major leagues that was designed for the sole purpose of playing baseball, Wrigley Field is still a place where fans are close to the action. This has not changed, even though the Cubs have spent more than $5,135,000 in recent years in improvements and modernization projects, excluding expenditures for each year's regular maintenance.

More than a half century of baseball tradition is present within the ivy-covered walls of Wrigley Field. After all, here is where Babe Ruth made his famous gesture toward the bleachers before slamming a homer there, where the Cubs' famed "murders' row" of Rogers Hornsby, Hack Wilson, Kiki Cuyler, Riggs Stevenson, and Charlie Grimm pounded opposing pitchers, where Grover Cleveland Alexander, Dizzy Dean, Claude Passeau, Charley Root, Larry French, and Bill Lee toed the pitching rubber.

Even in this day of instant communications the Cubs still maintain the tradition of flying a flag bearing either a "W" or an "L" from atop the scoreboard after a game to inform passerbys of the outcome of the day's contest. A blue flag with a white "W" indicates a win while a white flag with a blue "L" indicates a loss.

In 1978 a new innovation was started to inform night travelers. A blue light atop the scoreboard signals victory and a white one indicates defeat.

Early History of the Park

The Cubs moved to the present North Side location for the start of the 1916 season. The site had been the playing field for the Chicago Whales of the short-lived Federal League, which operated in 1914-15. The Cubs played their first game on the present site April 20, 1916, defeating Cincinnati 7-6 in 11 innings. The seating capacity was 14,000 originally.

First major improvements were made in 1922-23 when the grandstand was moved back and enlarged, increasing the seating capacity to 20,000.

FACT AND FIGURES ABOUT WRIGLEY FIELD

Distances from home plate

	Feet	Meters
Left field	355	(108.2)
Right field	353	(107.6)
Center field wall	400	(121.9)
Height of wall	11.5	(3.5)
Home plate-screen	60.5	(18.4)

Seating Capacity

First Tier Box Seats	3,254
Second Tier Box Seats	6,254
Upper Deck Box Seats	4,618
Mezzanine Box Seats	150
Reserved Grandstand	4,267
General Grandstand	15,898
Bleachers	3,300
Total	37,741

Next, the park was double-decked in the winter of 1926-27, nearly doubling the seating capacity. During the summer of 1937 improved bleachers were constructed. Then, in 1938, wide chairs were installed in the boxes and grandstand. This added to fan comfort, reducing the park's total capacity by several thousand.

During the early years, the park was known simply as Cubs' Park. Then in 1926 it was officially named Wrigley Field in honor of William Wrigley, Jr.

In recent years, the lower grandstand in right field was turned-in so that fans sitting down the right field line would face home plate; the entire upper deck was completely re-constructed (in a four-year project that began in the winter of 1967-68 and was completed in the winter of 1970-71); and plastic, self-rising, contour seats were installed in the lower deck reserved seating area, replacing folding chairs; along with many other improvement projects. During the past winter, new cafeteria-type concession stands were put in and more seats were changed to reserved grandstand, all for the fans' enjoyment.

The Flags of Wrigley Field Tell a Story

At all Cubs home games Old Glory flies from the centerfield masthead, highest point in the park. The flags of the 12 National League cities, eight States, and Quebec fly at the Clark St. entrance.

Before and during each game, 12 pennants, one for each National League Club, fly from the yardarms in the order of the standings of each division on the morning game—the first place team in the East Division at top left, and the West Division leader at the right.

The Chicago Cubs flag—red and white on a blue background—displays 16 red stars representing the Cubs' 16 National League Championships. The two blue stars represent the Cubs' two World Championships.

Public Transportation is Easy and Convenient

Located at Clark and Addison Sts., 3600 North, 1000 West, Clark St. buses (No. 22) and Addison buses (No. 152) take you to main gates. CTA Rapid Transit trains ("L" and subway) take you to ¼ block from the ball park (Addison St. station). All northbound and southbound "B" trains on the North-South Rapid Transit route stop at Addison on days of all Cubs home games throughout the season. "A" trains stop on hour before game time.

Ticket Information and Prices

Reserved seat tickets for all games are available by mail. Just send your order to Director of Ticket Services, Wrigley Field, Chicago, Ill. 60613. Available on the morning of every home game are more than 17,000 general grandstand and bleacher seats, for which no reservations are needed.

Reserved tickets can also be purchased in advance at the Wrigley Field Ticket Office (Addison and Sheffield).

Reserved box seats are $6.50 for adults and children. Reserved grandstand seats are $5.00 for adults and children. General grandstand seats are $3.50 for adults and $1.50 for children under 14. Admission to the bleachers is $2.00 for all ages.

'TWAS TIGHT BUT HE DID IT

June 27, 1884, Larry Corcoran, pitcher for the Cubs recorded his third no-hitter in beating Providence, 6-0. He did this in the Lake Front Grounds of the White Stockings, as they were called at that time, at Randolph and Michigan. This was especially remarkable because the right field fence was only 196 feet from home plate (the minimum distance to any fence today must be 250 feet).

QUICK CHANGE ARTISTS

Max Flack and Cliff Heathcote didn't have time to worry about the fit of their new uniforms when they were traded between games of a doubleheader in Chicago, May 30, 1922. The Cubs sent Flack to the Cardinals for Heathcote, and both outfielders played for their new clubs in the second game. Flack, who lived in Chicago, walked home for lunch between games. He didn't catch up with the news until fifteen minutes before the second game.

DID YOU KNOW . . . that Cub pitcher John Clarkson holds the Cub record for most victories? He racked up 35 wins for the pennant-winning Cubs in 1885!

RADIO-TV ANNOUNCERS FOR 1979

Lou Boudreau

Lou Boudreau, a name synonymous with the color, excitement, and expertise of major league baseball, has participated actively in the world of professional sports all of his adult life, first as one of the greatest shortstops in the history of baseball, and then as a sports broadcaster for WGN Radio.

On January 20, 1970, Lou was voted into the Baseball Hall of Fame by the Baseball Writers Association of America.

He joined the Cleveland Indians in 1939 and became one of baseball's greatest shortstops. In 1942, at the age of 24, he was named manager of the Indians and by 1948 was the most popular athlete in America, in addition to being chosen as the most valuable player in the American League.

Jack Brickhouse

"I like some 'Gee Whizzz' enthusiasm in broadcasting sports . . ." is the motto and manner of sportscasting of Jack Brickhouse.

Jack has been covering baseball for Television 9 since the station's first telecast in 1948. No baseball broadcaster has televised as many games as Brickhouse.

He entered the broadcasting profession at the age of 18 on radio station WMBD in his home town of Peoria, Illinois, and at that time was the youngest sports announcer in the nation. After broadcasting sports at Peoria for six years, Jack joined WGN to cover sports for the Mutual network and WGN.

Milo Hamilton

This will be Milo's first year doing the Chicago Cub play-by-play coverage with Jack Brickhouse.

Hamilton has been the voice of the World Champion Pittsburgh Pirates since 1976 over KDKA Radio and TV.

Hamilton will be returning to his "second home", for earlier in his career, he broadcast the Cubs on WIND Radio from '55-'57, then did the White Sox from 1961-65. He left Chicago for Atlanta, where he covered the Atlanta Braves for 10 years (1966-75).

In addition to his many baseball years he also did Georgia Tech football and Ohio State football. While in Chicago he covered Northwestern football and basketball and De Paul basketball for six years.

Born in Fairfield, Iowa, and a graduate from the University of Iowa, the 52-year-old broadcaster will be a welcome addition to the Cubs in 1980.

Vince Lloyd

It takes an unusual quality of electricity to relay the excitement of a live sporting event over the radio waves, and Vince Lloyd's voltage of enthusiasm has made him one of the most respected names in sport broadcasting.

The WGN Radio voice of the Chicago Cubs since 1965, Vince possesses the exacting expertise to convince listeners that "He was there, and saw it all," even if he was listening from his own car radio.

The recipient of hundreds of awards in sports broadcasting, his versatility extends to calling the play-by-play action of Big Ten Football games for WGN radio and television. Vince is truly one of the nation's top pro's in broadcast sports.
